Writing London

The POETRY of PEOPLE and PLACE

Study Abroad in London
July 8 to August 9, 2010

Capture the culture,
history, and cityscape
of London with a poet's eye.

Portray the pulsing shops of Piccadilly Circus;
lift Westminster Abbey's detailed stonework
into your phrases;
and render the color of art
in the National Gallery in words.
Let the wide-open spaces of Hampstead Heath inspire you as you craft your reflections into lines.

All student writers — beginners and those with experience — are welcome.

Application Deadline:
February 28, 2010

Cost is $5,500 (includes health insurance, roundtrip air transportation, accommodations, program excursions, daily breakfast and some additional meals). 3 credit hours.

Contact
Dr. Christine Stewart-Nuñez
Assistant Professor of English
C.Stewart-Nunez@sdstate.edu, 605.688.4065

Additional Information
Dr. Karl J. Schmidt
SDSU Director of International Affairs
Karl.Schmidt@sdstate.edu, 605.688.4913

Cooperative Center for Study Abroad
615.460.6575 or 800.319.6015
ccsa@belmont.edu, www.ccsa.cc

SDSU

CCSA
Cooperative Center for Study Abroad